Breaking the Cycle of Poverty through STEM education and workforce development

Looking for someone with strong interpersonal skills who is team-oriented, a self-starter, organized, reliable, able to work independently, passionate, and READY TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

As the LET'S GO STEM Scholar Coordinator you will work alongside the LET'S GO team developing a sustainable program to connect middle and high school youth from under-resourced communities with the hard and soft skills they need to overcome barriers on their path into the STEM workforce. STEM: Science | Technology | Engineering | Mathematics
